

Professor William Angus Wallace

Honorary Fellow of HKCOS 2011

Prof. Wallace completed his medical degree at St. Andrews Medical School, and subsequently at the University of Dundee in 1972. He carried out his basic surgical training in Derby, Nottingham, Newcastle and Gateshead, before returning to Nottingham in 1977 to complete his specialist orthopaedic training, after being awarded his FRCSEd. He was appointed Senior Lecturer in Orthopaedic Surgery in the University of Manchester in 1984.

Within a year, he was appointed Professor of Orthopaedic and Accident Surgery at the University of Nottingham.

Prof. Wallace's interests include shoulder and elbow surgery. From 2001 to 2003 he held the post of President of the British Elbow and Shoulder Society, and he has been appointed the President of the 11th International Congress on Surgery of the Elbow and Shoulder held in Edinburgh in 2010. Prof. Wallace also has an interest in osteoporosis, being Chairman of the National Osteoporosis Society from 1999 to 2003. He has been a strong supporter of sports medicine, and was President of the British Orthopaedic Sports Trauma Association from 1997 to 1999, Chairman of the National Sports Medicine Institute from 1999 to 2003 and Course Director of MSc in Sports Medicine, University of Nottingham from 1995 to 2001.

Prof. Wallace's deep involvement with the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh include his Vice Presidency from 1997 to 2000, Deanship of the Faculty of Health Informatics from 2000 to 2004, Chairman of the Intercollegiate Board for Trauma and Orthopaedic Surgery from 2002 to 2005 and ePortfolio Adviser from 2004 to 2010.

Prof. Wallace's contributions to the Hong Kong orthopaedic community include being external examiner leader of the Joint Specialty Examination in Orthopaedic Surgery in 1997, 1998, 2001, 2002, 2006 & 2007 and member of the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh Accreditation Team to inspect the orthopaedic departments in Hong Kong and Jishuitan Hospital in Beijing in 2005 and 2007.

Mr. President, I would like to present you Professor William Angus Wallace for the Honorary Fellowship of the Hong Kong College of Orthopaedic Surgeons.